

CQ1

Leonardo da Vinci (Mona Lisa, The Last Supper); Michelangelo (David, Pietà); Sandro Botticelli (The Birth of Venus, Primavera).

CQ2

Musée d'Orsay (Monet, Degas, Renoir); Metropolitan Museum of Art (Monet, Cézanne); Art Institute of Chicago (Seurat, Monet).

CQ3

The Last Supper (multiple restorations); Sistine Chapel Ceiling (major restoration 1980–1994).

CQ4

Damien Hirst (1995); Steve McQueen (1999); Grayson Perry (2003).

CQ5

Tempera on wood panel.

CQ6

David Hockney (Tate Britain); Anish Kapoor (Tate Modern).

CQ7

France.

CQ8

Mona Lisa (Louvre); Girl with a Pearl Earring (Mauritshuis); David (Accademia Gallery).

CQ9

Leonardo da Vinci (art, science); Michelangelo (sculpture, painting, architecture).

CQ10

David (Accademia Gallery); Dying Slave and Rebellious Slave (Louvre).

CQ11

Pablo Picasso exhibited simultaneously in multiple museums.

CQ12

The Last Supper (~300-year restoration span).

CQ13

Mona Lisa (Italy → France).

CQ14

Renaissance (1400–1600); Baroque (1600–1750); Impressionism (1860–1890).

CQ15

Modern curated exhibitions (e.g., Tate Modern) combine multiple art periods.

CQ16

Pre-1500: tempera/fresco; 1500–1700: oil; 1700–1900: oil/prints; Post-1900: mixed media.

CQ17

Many museum reserve collections contain artworks never exhibited.

CQ18

Renaissance workshop collaborations (e.g., Raphael and assistants).

CQ19

Peggy Guggenheim contributed to multiple museums.

CQ20

Caravaggio influenced Baroque/realism; Van Gogh influenced Expressionism.